armament, and turret and gun arrangement.

Rear Admiral James H. Dayton, who will command the new Pacific fleet, is expected to start almost any day from Manila to Mare Island with the four big armored cruisers. West Virginia, Colorado, Pennsylvania, and Maryland. The protected cruisers, Cincinnati and Raleigh, which will be relieved by the Denver and Cleveland, which are now on their way to Manila from Hampton Roads, will proceed across to Puget Sound shortly afterward. The St. Louis will soon arrive at Mare Island, the California has been placed in commission, the South Dakota will be ready shortly, and the Washington and Tenessee will then make their appearance to complete the organization, together with the new cruiser Milwaukee, which will soon be relieved in Central American waters by, the Albany.

Composition of Squadrons,

The Pacific fleet at present is com-Squadron, and Asiatic Squadron. The ships left in the Far East will be consolidated into the Asiatic Squadron, un-der command of Rear Admiral J. N. Hemphill, with headquarters at Manila. The formation of these two squadrons on the Pacific coast will be as follows: Rear Admiral James H. Dayton, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, first squadron and first division.

CHICAGO TRACTION DECISION RENDERED

Judge Grosscup and Prof. Gray Favor Railways Company.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 8.-United States Circuit Judge Grosscup and Prof. John C. Gray today handed down their decision as arbitrators in the plan for the reorganization of the companies now composing the Union Traction system of

The decision with some minor modifications, is practically what has been fications, is practically what has been expected, turning the Union Traction companies over to the new chicago Rallway Company. The announcement of the decision was received with dissatisfaction by the holders of some $4,000,000 of floating indebtedness, the character of whose holdings will be relegated to a second place in the new company's indebtedness, and threats of litigation to prevent the merger were at once made by attorneys representing these helders.

'Melican Boy Legally Adopted By "Chink" Dad

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 8.-A document was filed by Recorder Charles Folmer, at the court house, which caused a big surprise. It is a deed of adoption, by which Charlie Sing, a Chinaman, and proprietor of a laundry on Coal street. Shenandeah, adopts a white boy of Philadelphia parentage.

The boy's name is Charles Hunt, and his mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, Mrs. D. E. White, Anna White Hunt, and Anna Elizabeth Hunt, of Philadelphia, are parties to the agreement.

They agree that the boy's name shall become Roy Soo Sing; that Charlie Sing shall be his father, and in return the boy becomes the legal heir of the Chinaman.

The Celestial papa is American in all his habits, and is noted for his Fourth of July celebrations.
